I had one of the most confusing teachers who made us read A-Z of the case book and spent the whole class telling stories that I could not relate to anything in the case book !!! so I decided to do better things with my life than attending his class! This book was the only source I read for the exam and I did a very good job at the exam. I would recommend it

This book is very straightforward. All the basic employment laws you need to know are condensed in this book. I bought this for a class and it definitely was worth reading. I would definitely recommend this book to anyone looking into employment law.

I found this book very useful for my employment law class/exam. The book is easy to read and helped simplify the law.

Labor Law doctrines very well explained in a few pages and in a few words. Great for Law Students and Labor Lawyers..
