Customer Reviews

A must read for any history buff, teacher and students studying the civil war. Told first hand by Joshua Chamberlain in his own words. One of the true American Heroes of the Civil War, and our country. Read the book while i was in Gettysburg which made the book even more interesting and took me back in time with his unique and eloquent writing style. Truly an enjoyable read Easily the best book of its era on the civil war. This would be a different country if Chamberlain had become president instead of Grant.

Interesting independent thinking. A prospective about the last years of the war that is rarely told. A history of confusion.
