Customer Reviews

I bought this book for genealogy purposes. It was easy reading and is an excellent source of understanding the Scottish immigration to Canada (including areas in Scotland settling in areas in Canada). It includes why immigration began, purchasing tickets, life aboard the ships and how life was for the immigrants. It has pointed me in directions of where to look for ancestors. Even if I did not have Scottish ancestors, I would of enjoyed this book for the historical knowledge.

This is an excellent, well researched book with very good maps and drawings.. My ancestor's parents were there by 1788 when he was born in one of the early settlements, so the rest of the book doesn't have much to do with me, but that isn't the author's fault.
