Customer Reviews

This book is one of the most extraordinary documents I have ever seen. Brave and ferocious and tender all at once.

I was fortunate enough to meet Maggie Steber and Amy Willentz on the veranda of the Oloffson in 2000, while I was doing MY thing in Haiti's countryside, when I had had their book for a few years. I saw some of the peasants in the photos every day, and every word she utters is true. Just today, I was informed of a new piece on Maggie and Haiti at [...], which should make you all want to buy this book immediately!!! Several of the photos for sale are in the book. Kathleen Burke Huge fan of Haitian music, art, and people!!!!
