Customer Reviews

The Kalmus editions are reproductions of the 19th century Bach Gesellschaft edition. Because of these, there are some (not many) note errors, the ordering of pieces is not up-to-date, and there is some alto clef. However, if you are looking for an inexpensive edition of the Bach organ works that is fairly decent I would highly recommend this edition.

This is a very unique book. The layout of the music makes it seem as if it has 2 books in One! ie. worth the money. The first half consists of the difficult Fantasia and Fugue in a- minor, a fugue in G-Major. The strange "Little Harmonic Labyrinth" (BACH'S ONLY!) a non-tonal peice. The frolicking Fuga et G-Major "JIG", Fugue in D-Major. A concerto in G-Major(571) and the one in Es (E-flat)Major. Trios in G,c, and G. Plus the Delightful Aria in F-Major. The "SECOND BOOK" consists of 18 questionable chorale preludes by Bach.
