Customer Reviews

If you are practicing law in Texas and are filing any pleadings in any court and you do not own one of these you are wrong and are arguably committing malpractice. This book is a must have for every Texas attorney.

If you practice law or work in the legal field O'Connor's books are a must have for everyone. There are so many annotations to the Rules and procedures that you could almost write a brief using just this book. Every aspect from pre-trial to post-judgment is included. Just buy it, you will never buy anything but an O'Connor book again.

Great price for a necessary resource. Can't go wrong with 4 1/2 + stars and prime shipping

The quintessential resource for any judge.
